If I am a Title IV federal aid recipient, I understand that this aid will be credited to my bursar account towards educational expenses. Such expenses may include, but are not limited to, tuition, housing, dining, and items such as extra course fees and personal expenses.

We certify that all information is correct at this time and that we will notify the Office of Financial Aid and Student Employment promptly, in writing, of any changes in our financial circumstances and provide any other requested information or documentation. Furthermore, we understand that changes in financial circumstances include, but are not limited to, receipt of outside scholarships, benefits, or other awards; changes in income or assets; and changes in the college enrollment status of other household members. We understand that these changes may result in revisions to the applicant's aid package. Finally, we understand that Cornell may withhold or cancel financial aid if any requested information is not submitted. We understand that we may be asked to provide official IRS transcripts at any time.

We understand that information provided on this and other documents may be shared with the following: the applicant, other agencies from which we are requesting aid, and donors.

We understand that the sources of financial aid funding for which the student is eligible may be limited if all required application materials are not submitted by April 24, 2009.
