- Winter Session Financial Aid is available in the form of loans for matriculated Cornell University undergraduate students based on the loan eligibility available for the 2009-2010 aid year.
- If you are enrolling in an independent study, you must submit a copy of your completed Application for Independent Study. You need to submit the original to the School of Continuing Education and Summer Sessions when you register. The Application for Independent Study is available at the School of Continuing Education and Summer Sessions, B20 Day Hall, or on their website.
- Please note that in order to receive a federal or Cornell University (Shoemaker) loan for the first time, the electronic Master Promissory Note must be signed and online Entrance Counseling be completed. These forms are available online at: <http://finaid.cornell.edu/finaid/types/loans/promissorynote.cfm>
- If you are currently on a leave of absence, you must provide documentation from your college registrar verifying that you are eligible to return for Winter Session and the Spring 2010 semester as a full-time matriculated student.
- If you need the course(s) listed above to graduate in January 2010, you must submit a letter from your college registrar specifying the course(s) and/or credits required for you to graduate in January 2010.
- Your winter session financial aid is reviewed based on the enrollment information provided on your 2009-2010 Winter Session Financial Aid Application. Any change to your enrollment may affect your aid. Please notify the Office of Financial Aid and Student Employment of any changes in your enrollment. Failure to provide notification of these changes may result in an owing of funds.
